PURPOSE OF MEETING

Brian Crowell, Town Clerk, Town of Clark's Harbour called the Barrington Municipal Office at 9:45 a.m. on Monday, November 8, 2010 requesting a meeting of Council re: declaring a Local State of Emergency.

SUMMARY OF EVENTS

- EMO Planning Committee met Sunday, November 7, 2010 re: Upper Clyde Road

- notices given door to door re: flooding

- Greg Newell, D.O.T. reported:
  - flooded sections dangerous
  - closing western section from paved portion to "Bloody Creek"
  - have manned barriers
  - east side have conditions causing concern where water over road - not now closing
  - probably haven't reached crest of river yet

- 50-60 notices given out yesterday

- D.O.T. may place concrete barriers where they now have manned wooden barriers - this will be done, if necessary, today, to limit traffic on the road

- consider declaring Local State of Emergency to permit "forced" evacuation

- will need Comfort Centre in Port Clyde
- need to contact Red Cross re: assistance for overnight accommodation, if necessary
- Don re: waiver/evacuation

Resolution C101102

Moved by C. O'Donnell and seconded by M. Atkinson that a Local State of Emergency be declared for the western side of the Clyde River from Highway 103 to Cobscouch Bridge and all areas in between.

Motion carried unanimously.

- Dick Crowell will call CJLS for public service announcement
- Jim Newell will call Provincial EMO.
